Preface

The Statistical Information on Bhutan's Third Parliamentary Elections 2018 is the second publication of election data by the Election Commission of Bhutan (ECB). This document provides comprehensive statistical information related to the Third Parliamentary Elections.

This publication will provide information related to voters, voter turnout, election officials and information related to elections. The data and information compiled here are based on the information collected from the polling stations, Dzongkhag Election Offices, and the ECB Head Office.

The book is expected to be a source of information and serve as a data bank for any users wishing to carry out research and studies on matters related to elections in Bhutan.

The Election Commission of Bhutan would like to extend its gratitude and appreciation to all the stakeholders who participated and contributed to the successful conduct of free and fair elections in the country. We solicit comments and suggestions from all to further improve the collection, recording and presentation of election data in the future.

Chogyal Dago Rigdzin
Chief Election Commissioner of Bhutan

Acknowledgement

The entire team of dedicated election officials including security personnel deployed during these elections deserves equal credit for the success of the Third Parliamentary Elections 2018. It is an important milestone in the nation's history and journey towards a sound and vibrant democracy.

This book stands testimony to the hard work and commitment of all stakeholders and officials who worked closely with the Election Commission of Bhutan in conducting free and fair elections since first Parliamentary Elections 2008.

The contribution of everyone, directly or indirectly, involved are highly regarded and acknowledged with gratitude.

Introduction

As Bhutan celebrated its 100 glorious years of Monarchy in 2008 under the reign of the Wangchuck Dynasty, long vision of the His Majesty The Fourth Druk Gyalpo was accomplished with the introduction of the Democratic Constitutional Monarchy.

The democratic transition was marked by the conduct of first ever Parliamentary Elections. The two phases of National Council Elections saw a voter turnout of 53.05% and a remarkably high turnout of 79.38% during the National Assembly General Election in 2008, instituted the first democratically elected government for the first five-year term. It was followed systematically by the Second Parliamentary Elections to National Council and National Assembly conducted in 2013 with 45.15%, 55.27% and 66.13 % voter turnout in the National Council, Primary Round and General Election respectively.

The Third Parliamentary Elections marked another milestone in the journey of the Nation on the path of Democracy under the Constitution of the Kingdom of Bhutan. It took the level of maturity of the Bhutanese democratic process and political system a step forward. A decade between the First and the Third parliamentary elections provided the Bhutanese electorate and political actors, including political parties and candidates, valuable political experiences, leadership skills and knowledge on the important roles that they play and their active electoral and political participation in the realm of the Bhutanese Democracy has been proven over the years.

The Third Parliamentary Elections to National Council and National Assembly saw improvement in voter turnout with 54.3%, 66.36 % and 71.46 % in the National Council, Primary Round and General Election respectively.

With the successful completion of these elections, the Election Commission of Bhutan takes this opportunity to bring out this report titled 'Statistical Information on Bhutan's Third Parliamentary Elections 2018.'

The main objective of the book is to document the detailed statistics of voters, the election results in different constituencies and Dzongkhags, votes secured by political parties and the candidates, voter participation and turnout of different age categories. The comprehensive and systematic compilation of statistical data and information presented in this book are based on the firsthand information gathered from the Polling Stations, Returning Officers as well as information maintained by the Department of Election (DoE), Department of Electoral Registration and Delimitation (DERD), Department of Civic & Electoral Training (DoCET), Information and Communication Technology Division (ICTD), Legal and Communication Division (LCD), Administration and Finance Division (AFD) and Policy and Planning Coordination Division (PPCD) of the Election Commission of Bhutan.

The book is divided into three parts:

- i. Part I: National Council Election 2018;
- ii. Part II: Primary Round of National Assembly 2018; and
- iii. Part III: General Election of National Assembly 2018.

The data from this book is intended to serve as the principal source of information for planners, policy makers, researchers and academics alike who wish to undertake study and comparative analysis of the Bhutanese electoral development.

¹ The EVM male/female total turnout in the Press Release/Notification dated 21st of April 2018 was erroneously reflected as male 80,307 (instead of 80,345) and female 89,316 (instead of 89,278). During the detailed cross-checking carried out by the Dzongkhags and final compilation by Head Office, it was found that 38 males had been reflected in the female total although the over all total EVM voter turnout remains same as 169,623.

Gasa Dzongkhag recorded the highest voter turnout of 75.55% and Trashigang Dzongkhag with 44.42 % was the lowest. However, these highest and lowest voter turnouts do not provide a concrete basis of comparison and analysis due to differences in voter size and the resident population of the respective Dzongkhags.

In terms of absolute numbers of voter turnout, Samtse saw the highest with 24,947 and the lowest was 1511 in Gasa Dzongkhag.

EVM Voter Turnout by Gender

In terms of gender, 50.31 % of male and 48.67 % of female cast vote on EVM.

Again, Gasa Dzongkhag saw the highest voter turnout in terms of both genders with 77.95 % male and 71.24 % female.

The lowest male and female voter turnouts were 33.74% and 34.07 % both recorded in Trashigang Dzongkhag.

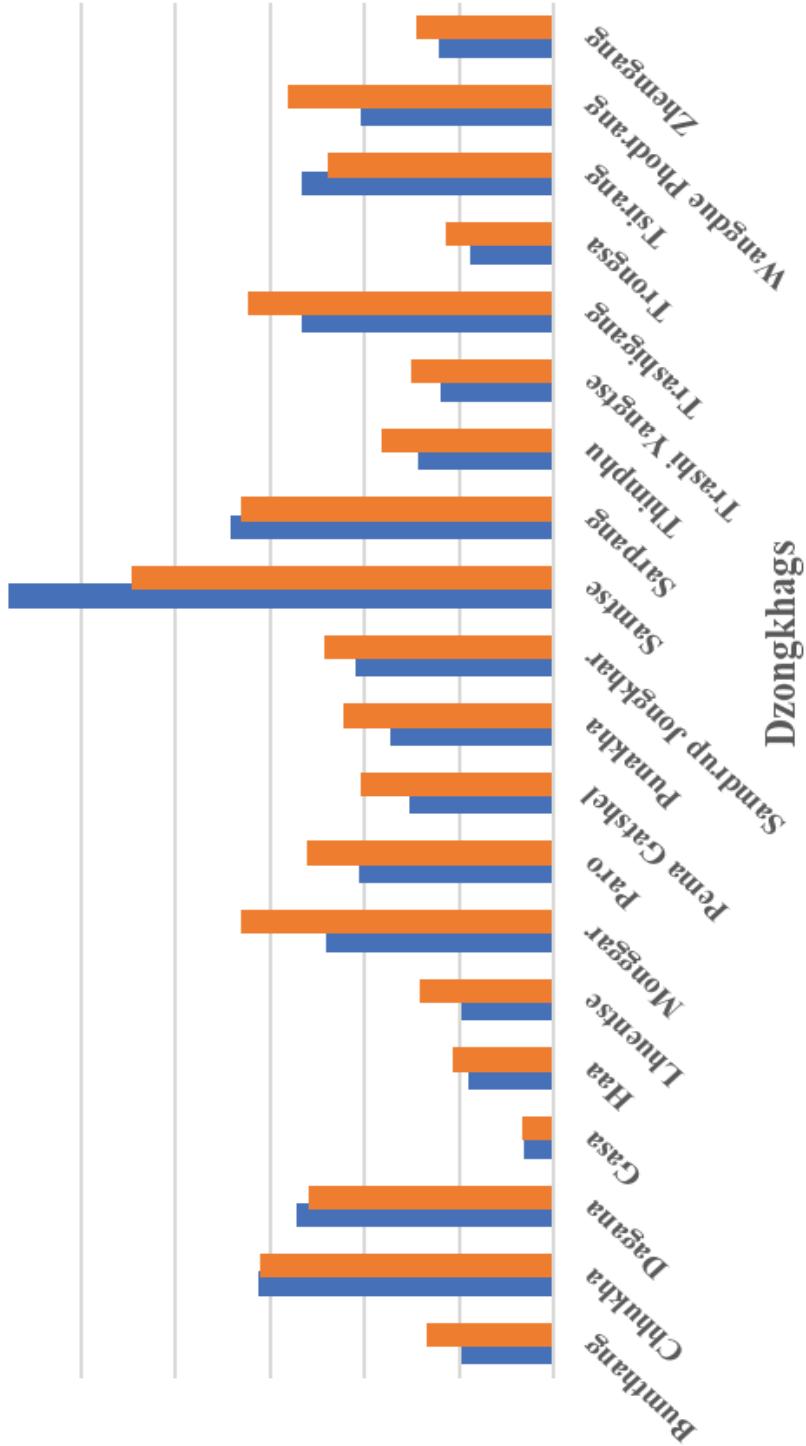

The Dzongkhag wise gender disaggregated voter turnout of the NC Election 2018 is presented in Table 1.10

Postal Ballots and Postal Voter Turnout

The Postal Ballot System was put in place in obedience to Section 331 of the Election Act of the Kingdom of Bhutan 2008 to facilitate specified groups of voters, unable to present themselves at the designated polling stations to exercise their right to vote during the poll day of any elections.

a. Conventional Postal Ballot

Out of 28,325 (20,862 male & 7,463 female) registered conventional postal voters, a total of 22,471 (17,782 male & 4,689 female) voted.

b. Postal Ballot Facilitation Booth and Mobile Booth

Out of 60,590 (30,589 male & 30,001 female) registered postal voters for the Postal Ballot Facilitation Booth and Mobile Booths, a total of 42,441 (21,804 male & 20,637 female) turned out to cast their vote in 69 Facilitation Booths and 9 Mobile Facilitation Booths. The overall postal voter turnout percentage was 73.0%.

The postal ballot summary of the NC Elections 2018 is presented in Table 1.14

Rejection during the Opening of Envelope A

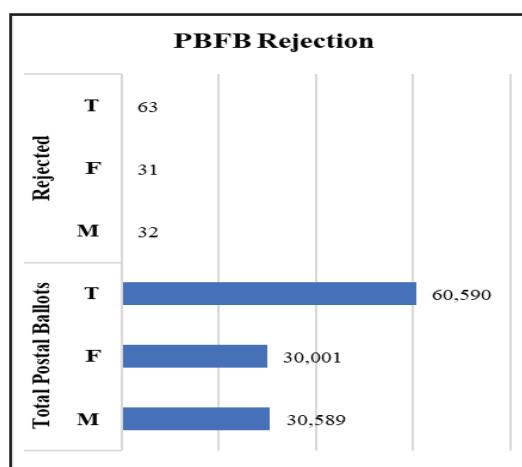

Conventional Postal ballot facilities were extended either to the remote postal voters or civil servant who opted not to vote from the Facilitation Booths.

A total of 2088 (1543 male and 545 female) postal ballots were rejected during the opening of Envelope A due to one or more of the reasons prescribed in the Postal Ballot Rules and Regulations.

7.4 % of the total postal ballots received got rejected due to various issues regarding the Identity Declaration Certificates (IDC) as follow;

- i. No IDC/IDC inside Envelope B;
- ii. Blank IDC;
- iii. IDC without witness signature; .
- iv. Unsigned IDC;
- v. Invalid IDC;
- vi. No/Self witness;
- vii. Incomplete/Wrong Information; &
- viii. No/Not properly sealed Envelope B

As compared to the Conventional Postal Ballot rejection, PBFB saw a lesser number of rejections with only 63 (32 male and 31 female) postal ballots out of 60,690 which is just 0.1%.

The rejection was mainly of the following two reasons;

1. No seal and signature of Presiding Officer
2. No IDC serial numbers

The Table 1.16 shows dzongkhag wise rejection of postal ballot during the opening of Envelope A.

Invalid Postal Ballot during the counting of Postal Votes

(Opening of Envelope B)

A total of 275 Postal Ballots were invalid and rejected during the counting of postal ballots (Opening of Envelope B) due to the following reasons;

- i. Incorrect marking ii. Unmark ballot paper
- iii. No ballot paper iv. Wrong ballot paper
- v. Double marking

The number of rejected ballots from the conventional system was 232 (96 male & 136 female) and only 43 (15 male & 28 female) from the facilitation booth.

The rejection of postal ballots during the opening of Envelop B is as in Table 1.17

EVM Voter Turnout

Of the total votes cast, 199,553 votes were cast in person on the Electronic Voting Machines (EVM) in the 865 Polling Stations with 65.50 % turnout.

Gasa had the highest voter turnout of 78.63% and the lowest voter turnout was 56.45 % in Lhuentse.

However, these highest and lowest voter turnouts do not provide a concrete basis of comparison and analysis due to differences in voter size and the resident population of the respective Dzongkhags.

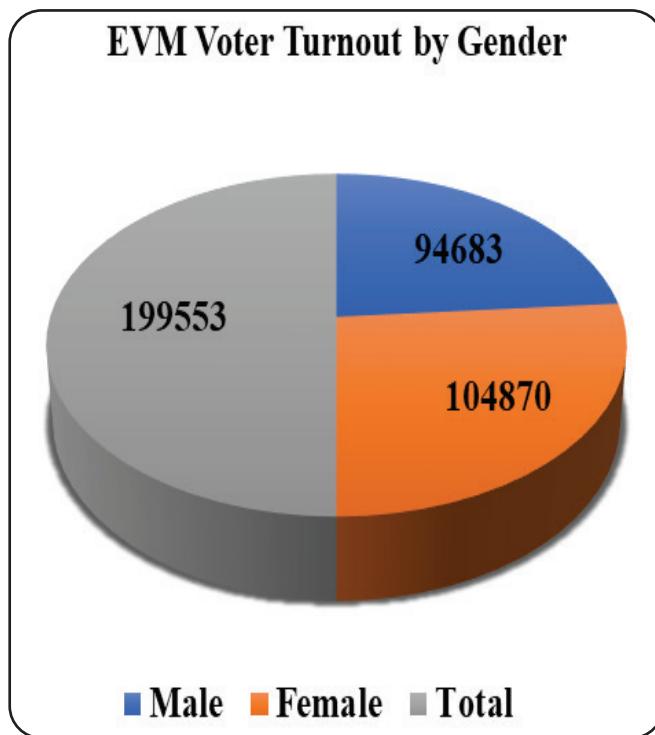

In terms of absolute numbers of EVM voter turnout, Samtse saw the highest with 26,528 voters turned up to vote in EVM and the lowest was 1387 in Gasa.
